CHOOSING A RACE

You can choose between six playable races in Lineage II. Each offers unique characteristics, skills, and abilities to suit your play style.

HUMAN

Humans have great potential and diversity. They are the weakest races. However, they have cultivated their own destiny and are now the most influential of the races.

Darkelf

Dark Elves follow Shilen, the goddess of death, who used to be the goddess of water before her fall from grace. Dark Elves are stronger than Elves, are more accurate at night, and have the strongest magical powers of the races.

ORC

Orcs, the race of fire, serve the god Pa'agrio. They are the strongest race.

DWARF

Dwarves are the race of earth. They like to craft items and build things. They are strong and dexterous.

ELF

Elves worship the goddess of water, Eva. They have slim builds and long ears. They are characterized by their innocence and their pure beauty.

Kamael

The Kamael are mighty one-winged soldiers. They have an affinity to dark magic. Scholars speculate that the Kamael were created by the Giants for combat.
